10! HAPPY BIRTHDAY, FELIX HAIRAPETIAN! THE SPIRIT congratulates his true son!

"The dog is the virtue that could not make itself human" (VICTOR HUGO)

My dear FELIX!

"Felix" is a Latin name and means "The Happy One! That's true because you, FELIX HAIRAPETIAN, are "The Happy Prince". Time passed so quickly, but you haven't changed. On the contrary: you haven't even aged yet. The film composer ERWIN HALLETZ once wrote to me: "I have children. I had dogs. No comparison!" He meant it in favor of the dogs. ?? I would add: "And wolves!", Because you, dear FELIX, are a Siberian wolf dog husky and therefore, half dog, half wolf. We can tell that one of your nicknames is "MR. HOUDINI", because you can't be locked up. You even open locks with ease! My dear Felix, when you came into my life nine and a half years ago, it was love at first sight, the beginning of a wonderful friendship and an everlasting adventure. You are very smart and I have taught a lot from you. You have proven that in the sense of FRIEDRICH SCHILLER "Loyalty is not a madman". You are loyal, beautiful, strong, sensitive, intelligent, empathetic, brave and kind-hearted. I thank you for walking through thick and thin with me and knowing that we will be connected forever.

With great love,

your human dad MARC Spirit Hairapetian with his human mom MAGO HAIRAPETIAN
